

- 10:50 Jakub Mírka
(SOA Plzeň, Klášter u Nepomuku site):
Aristocratic officials of Franz Joseph, Count of Vrtba and administration of his estate at the turn of 18th and 19th century
- 11:10 Lenka Nováková
(The Těšín Museum – Centre for economic and social history FF OU):
"Bei diesem Amt viele unerträgliche Verantwortungen zugemutet werden"
A paper on bureaucratisation in the liege towns of the Hukvaldy estate

11:30 discussion

11:45 lunch

Hosted by: Martin Javor

- 13:00 Václav Bartůšek
(Benešov):
Information on officials in the lists of Gymnasium students from the 17th and 18th centuries in the Czech Lands

- 13:20 Kateřina Bobková-Valentová
(Institute of History CAS):
Bureaucracy and office work in the milieu of the Jesuit Order

13:40 discussion

13:55 break, refreshment

Hosted by: Kateřina Bobková-Valentová

- 14:10 Martin Javor
(Institute of History, FF Prešov University):
Officials in the imperial Freemasons' Lodge

- 14:30 Helena Chalupová
(Institute of Czech History FF UK):
Bohemia is haunted by the bureaucrat: posthumous images of the officials

- 14:50 Final discussion, end of the conference; the expected end of the conference at 15:30

The Birth of the Official

Career, sociability and identity of enlightened officials

23 – 24 November 2017

Institute of History CAS, the conference room

Partners:

FAKULTA
HUMANITNÍCH STUDIÍ
Univerzita Karlova

18 česká společnost pro výzkum
osmnáctého století

The conference is organized with support of the Grant
Agency CR (within the Grant Project No. 16-12844S)

PROGRAMME

Thursday, 23 November 2017

- 14:00 Welcome by the Institute management (Martin Holý)
- 14:10 Martina Ondo-Grečenková, Jiří Hrbek, Tomáš Sterneck:
Opening of the conference and introduction of the grant project
- Hosted by: Helena Sedláčková
- 14:30 Zbyněk Sviták
(Institute of Auxiliary Sciences and Archive Studies/FF MU):
Being an officer
- 14:50 Paweł Fiktus
(Faculty of Law, Economics and Administration/University of Wrocław):
Polish political and legal thought of the 18th century regarding the issues of bureaucracy
- 15:10 discussion
- 15:25 break, refreshment
- Hosted by: Zbyněk Sviták
- 15:45 Helena Sedláčková
(The Czech National Bank Archive):
The birth of a civil servant on the example of a regional governor
- 16:05 Martina Ondo-Grečenková
(Institute of History CAS – Faculty of Humanities UK):
"I shall serve to tear my tail off". Careers, social and family strategies of administrative officials
- 16:25 discussion
- 16:40 break, refreshment

- Hosted by: Jiří Hrbek
- 17:00 Jan Lhoták
(University of West Bohemia):
The delights and hardships of the contribution officer. The social position of tax collectors in the 18th century
- 17:20 Tomáš Sterneck
(Institute of History CAS):
Transformations of the municipal officer in the 18th century
- 17:40 Anton Tantner
(Universität Wien):
Ein aufgeklärter "Ochsen-Notarius"? Torschreiber und Zollbeamte als Kontrollorgane an den Wiener Stadtgrenzen
- 18:00 discussion
- 18:15 evening refreshment

Friday, 24 November 2017

- Hosted by: Martina Ondo-Grečenková
- 09:00 Michel Figeac
(Université Bordeaux-Montaigne):
Servir le Roi par la plume: État de l'historiographie en France
- 09:20 Claire Madl
(CEFRES):
Diplomacy on the road to professionalization in the 2nd half of the 18th century
- 10:00 discussion
- 10:15 break, refreshment
- Hosted by: Tomáš Sterneck
- 10:30 Jiří Hrbek
(Institute of History CAS):
Fürstenberg officials in everyday life of the Křivoklát estate